PLAINTIFF'S MEMORANDUM TO COURT REGARDING PROCESS AND PROCEDURES

COMES NOW Plaintiff, Darrie Walton, to acknowledge receipt of Order dated April 29th, 2016. Plaintiff appreciates the court for alleviating this stressor from her. Plaintiff was attempting to teach herself to research law which was turning out to be mind-boggling and creating more depression. Attorney noted on Order has contacted Plaintiff and is out of town until May 16, 2016. Plaintiff has finally been contacted by Co Counsel Jackson and will meet with her in the p.m. on May 9, 2016.

In the meantime, Plaintiff has received another entry of appearance letter from the Buckley & Buckley law firm [PLAINTIFF EXHIBIT Z] on May 5, 2016 from Martin Buckley entering his appearance on May 3, 2016. Again Plaintiff objects to the time frame the entry of appearances have been documented to record. Plaintiff's belief is that before the attorney can send any response on behalf of client that requires signature, he/she must document their entry of appearance with the court first. This firm has not procedurally met requirements and could/should not be allowed to answer for Avery and Fink with regards to the April 11, 2016 response brief to Plaintiff's complaint filed February 29, 2016 with the USDC.

From this point forward, there should be no more correspondence, Motions, or filings by Plaintiff on this matter. Per Order of the court, there is now an attorney assigned to this complaint. Plaintiff knows that if she got the Order, then Buckley and Buckley received this Order, also; and likewise, should not be sending any further correspondence to Plaintiff on this complaint, but rather to the attorney appointed by Court Order.

Plaintiff will inquire with attorney, if her request for Stay of Tenancy can be refilled with the court, in the proper procedure and format. Plaintiff has lived here since 2002 and is low income. Current Owners have been here since 2010. Finding a place to go that is financially affordable is not easy with moving expenses, off-site storage unit necessity, new resident security fees, and up front rent costs is not feasible. Plaintiff needs time.

Respectfully,

Signature:
Darrie Walton
